

I am pleased with how the State of Indiana's Attorney General has kept my phone line free from the calls of salespeople. I don't want the SCC to change the laws and take away the peace and quiet I have had.